June 2025 Newsletter

[44] No one can come to me unless the Father who sent me draws him. And I will raise him up on the last day. [45] It is written in the Prophets, 'And they will all be taught by God.' Everyone who has heard and learned from the Father comes to me— John 6

This has been a whirlwind of a month! I'm thankful for the chance to visit family and my home church in Singapore. The time spent with family was precious, but it wasn't easy to share the gospel with them as life seems to be smooth sailing, and they have little interest in the things of God.

ESL class

We had our last class on 6/2 and ended with a potluck lunch. For the summer, I'm inviting two of the students, Bao and Ruoli, to a weekly English cum Bible class and we'll begin soon. Bao seems to be drawn to God and has brought her children to Sun service a few times.

All the teachers also met together on 6/1 to have lunch and give thanks. I'm grateful for all our teachers – Chen, Min, Jessie, Cheryl, Roseann and Sharon. They did their best to teach English and helped the students in other ways too. I'm especially thankful that all the teachers would like to continue teaching the next school year.

Sunharbor Manor Nursing Home

I'm thankful that this home allows us to move freely around to talk, sing and pray with the residents. Most of the residents are also happy to see us and readily share with us their situations.

Anthony is a Roman Catholic. He says that he loves God. We reminded him that God loves and cares about him too. Right now, our bodies may be wasting away, but one day we'll be renewed and have brand new bodies. We prayed for him and also for Catherine and Edward who are Christians.

Annie Taylor is a Jehovah witness. She had given me a Watchtower magazine to read during my last visit. I told her that I've read it, but I don't agree with what it says about Jesus not being God. We read some verses from John 1 to her that showed that Jesus is God. She seemed a little surprised by what we said but she didn't argue with us. She would like to talk with us again during our next visit. We prayed for her health, and she said that her legs have improved since I last prayed for her.

Outreach

Broadway mall

We gave out some flyers for the church VBS in Aug. Some people were interested.

A Nepalese lady, Sirjana, is visiting her son in the US for 2 months. I shared the gospel with her, and she said that she has heard it before when she visited Israel and Christians shared with her. Also, there are some churches in Nepal. I asked what she thinks about it, and she said that she likes the gospel. I gave her information about our church and my contact and prayed that she may visit some time.

Jason Guo from Wenzhou, whom we met a few times in the mall, brought his 2 children to the church. Jason's mom is a Christian and attends a church in Chinatown. Jason is not a believer but would like his children to grow up in the church. Coincidentally, a sister from our church knows his family well. Jason said that he'll continue to come and other sisters are inviting him to join our fellowship.

Some prayer items:

1. Thank God for bringing us safely to Singapore and back. May God continue to soften my parents' and other family members' hearts towards Him.
2. Thank God for the completion of another ESL school year. Please pray for wisdom as we reflect on the past year and plan for the new one.
3. Thank God that the church will have a VBS in Aug. May God bring more families from the community to this event.
4. May our church be a missional church that continually seeks to reach out and serve the community.

Thank you for your prayers! Please let me know how I can pray for you and your ministry. If you do not want to receive future communications from me, please let me know and I will take you off my mailing list.
